Your Adviser's Experience

David is passionate about providing quality advice and solutions that meet your specific needs. He completed his degree in October 1987 and started in the workforce in November 1987. He has expanded services to Melbourne, Inverloch and most recently to Queenscliff with a second branch office now in Queenscliff.

He commenced his accounting career in 1987 and financial adviser career in 1999 and while there have been many changes over that time with tax, superannuation and age pension, the foundations are still similar. He will gather a lot of personal and financial information to provide the best advice possible, using his experience and best available research to supply solutions and a roadmap to the future by providing personal specific advice to meet your needs. As these needs change over time so does the advice, so the advice needs to be reviewed on a regular basis to be flexible to cope with future changes in your personal life and from any legislation changes.
